Toronto, Canada: Award-winning architectural woodcarving manufacturer Art For Everyday Inc.™ is dedicated to the pursuit of excellence in architecture and interior design. Their quest to provide quality products that enhance interior design is reflected in the company's solid woodcarvings, which are all manufactured in North America. As a testament to this commitment, Art For Everyday Inc.™ has agreed to be the presenting sponsor of keynote speaker Dominick Tringali at the Kitchen/Bath Industry Show (K/BIS), which takes place in Chicago, Illinois from April 11 to 13, 2008.

Domenick Tringali is the founder and president of Dominick Tringali Architects, a full-service architectural firm specializing in luxury custom estates, market housing and commercial design, as well as interior design and community planning. Under his leadership his Detroit-based firm has become a recognized leader in the design of high-end communities and custom homes across the United States.
